

Newborns and young children can suffer from Cataract

1-4 babies per 10,000 births have cataract - the leading cause of childhood blindness.

Signs

Whitish appearance in the eye

Squint

Involuntary shaking of eyeballs

Cataract is best treated with Surgery.

Post surgical care and rehabilitation are equally important.

Get your child's eye examined every year.

pediatricappointment@lvpei.org