

Volunteers' Services

Volunteers' services for rehabilitation of the visually challenged

Volunteers have been a valued resource for L V Prasad Eye Institute for over two decades. They work along with the vision rehabilitation team, playing an active role towards the rehabilitation of those with visual impairment. The time, talent, skills, resources and friendships so generously offered by our volunteers enrich the lives of our clients. Thank you for supporting us by becoming a volunteer!

Volunteer Feedback

My association and experience with LVPEI has been very rewarding and profound. It helped me discover my passion. I noticed a pattern evolving... one good action leads to more positive actions.

– Bharathi Namenini, volunteer since 2006

The experience of writing exams has made me nostalgic as it brought back 5 decades' old memories

– K S R Murthy, volunteer since 2010

It was a humbling experience to see the dignity and hope with which these children and their parents cope, when compared to the attitude of those with none of these conditions in the outside world.

– Neena Verghese, volunteer since 2006

I am doing service to give back something to society.

– Rosy Diwakar, volunteer since 2007

To put in one word the experience of volunteering at LVPEI — DEDICATED

– Akhila Ravi, volunteer since 2003

My experience with LVPEI is tremendous and I am eager to do more in editing, typing or digitizing the educational material for the visually challenged.

– Madhavi Nadimpulli, volunteer since 1999

I enjoy working as a volunteer here. I derive satisfaction and thank God for the opportunity to contribute my mite in the mighty task undertaken by LVPEI & its Rehabilitation team.

– Rachel Mathew, volunteer since 2011
